MISSION STATEMENT.

The Mission Statement of Agender NZ Incorporated is.

- To help the transgendered person and partner/supporter come to terms with their transgender issues in a positive light.
- To promote the emotional and social well-being of its members and transgendered people in general.
- To provide a safe venue for transgendered people and families/supporters to meet together socially to share information and ideas.
- To educate the general public about transgender diversity and work to create a more accepting society.
- Acceptance of all forms of gender difference.
- To provide friendship with other like-minded people.
- Space for personal growth, development and education.
- To provide a partners support network.

As everyone in the community is integrated as “One”

Then the entire community will benefit as “One”.

The National Committee will require that this “Mission Statement” is accepted by all of its members, whether partners/supporters otherwise their membership may be terminated

Interpretation of Transgender

Agender NZ Inc. uses the internationally recognized term “Transgender” as an umbrella term for the myriad of self-identifications within the gender spectrum.

For the purpose of the rules of Agender NZ Inc. the term Transgender shall be used when no other terminology is appropriate.

Members shall also use this terminology when speaking of the actual membership of Agender NZ Inc.

1) Name.
